Rudder automates your system security posture management and ensures an efficient operation of critical and complex IT infrastructures.
Rudder is a European and open source solution for managing systems and their compliance, that acts as a control tower to audit and configure your systems' compliance. Its simple and intuitive user interface breaks down silos between teams and allows DevSecOps collaboration.

This synthetic documentation presents Rudder's subscription models (aka Rudder Enterprise) allowing to extend the solution's uses in an enterprise context. For further information, please contact our sales department: cs@rudder.io

A Rudder Enterprise subscription corresponds to a fixed-term subscription giving access to :
(1) the software delivery, in its current version and in future versions released during the subscription period,
(2) the user license,
(3) the maintenance and user support, if applicable, as well as additional services.
